7. Online Banking Services

By checking the box to acknowledge the terms and conditions of service, you authorize us to complete electronically any transfers or transactions submitted by you through the service, including transfers or transactions that would otherwise require your written authorization.

You may use the service to do any of the following, subject to applicable restrictions:

- a. Transfer funds between your checking and savings accounts;
- b. Transfer funds to pay your other accounts with us, such as an installment loan or mortgage;
- c. Make payments to third parties (if you also enroll for the service);
- d. View current balances in your accounts;
- e. View transaction histories for your accounts, to the extent available; and
- f. Do routine maintenance such as ordering checks, updating your contact information, and changing your password.

The Bank will occasionally add additional services to enhance the experience.

Some of the above services may not be available to you because of the type of account you have or other restrictions that may apply.

Generally, you will be able to access the service 24 hours a day, seven days a week. You may not be able to access the service if, for example, our system is down for routine maintenance or emergency repairs, and we do not warrant that the service will be available at all times.

8. General Terms and Conditions

- . Your Liability for Unauthorized Transactions. Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your username or password has been lost, stolen, or used without your permission, or if you believe that someone has transferred or may transfer funds in or from your account without your permission. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your account plus any available credit on your overdraft line of credit. If you tell us within two business days after you learn of the loss, theft or unauthorized transfer due to someone signing in without your permission, you can lose no more than $50.00

If you do NOT tell us within two business days after you learn of the loss, theft, or unauthorized transfer, and we can prove we could have stopped someone from using your password without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.00.

If your statement shows transfers that you did not make, including those made through the service or otherwise, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was made available to you, you may not get back any money you lost if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us within the 60-day period.

If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) keeps you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.

If you believe your username or password has been lost, stolen, or used without your permission, call or write to us as follows:

Telephone Number: 1-800-990-4828

Mailing Address:

Atlantic Union Bank
Attention: Online Banking
P.O. Box 940
Ruther Glen, Virginia 22546

For your own protection, we recommend that you not email us to notify us of lost or stolen usernames or passwords.

- a. Your Responsibility to Keep Usernames and Passwords Confidential. You agree to keep your username, password, personal identification numbers, and codes secure and confidential. You agree to tell us immediately, and to select a new username or password, if you believe your username or password has been obtained by someone not authorized to have access to your account. If you give your password to someone, every transaction that person performs in your account is considered to have been authorized by you. You are solely responsible for all transactions that person may perform while using the service, whether or not you authorized a particular transaction. We have no duty to verify the identity of any person who accesses the service using a valid password. We are not liable for any losses resulting from the use of the service by any person to whom you have given your password. If you tell us that a person is no longer authorized to access your account, then only transactions performed by that person after you told us, and after we have had a reasonable amount of time to act on your notice, are considered unauthorized transactions.

- b. Our Liability for Failure to Make Transfers. We are responsible for completing transfers from and transactions in your account according to the instructions you give when using the service. If we do not complete a transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. However, there are some exceptions. We will not be liable, for instance:
- i. If, through no fault of ours, you do not have enough money in your account to make the transfer;
 - ii. If you have an overdraft line of credit and the transfer would go over your overdraft credit limit;
 - iii. If our system was not working properly and you knew about the malfunction when you started the transfer;
 - iv. If circumstances beyond our control (such as fire or flood) prevent the transfer, despite reasonable precautions that we have taken;
 - v. If you provide wrong instructions or do not enter information (such as account numbers and payment amounts) correctly when using the service;
 - vi. If circumstances beyond our control prevent you from accessing or using the service; or
 - vii. If you, or anyone to whom you provide your password or username, uses the service improperly or for any fraudulent or illegal purpose.

In addition, there may be other exceptions stated in your other account documents.

- c. Waiver of Signature Requirements. You agree that any requirement for multiple signatures or authorizations do not apply to accounts linked to the service. You agree that we may honor the instructions of any person who has accessed the service using your password even if your account is a joint account or has a multiple signature requirement.
- d. System and Hardware Requirements. You must have the following items in order to use the service:
- i. A personal computer;
 - ii. An operating system such as Windows Vista, Windows 7, or Macintosh OS X 10.0 or higher
 - iii. An internet browser, such as Microsoft Internet Explorer, Google Chrome, Firefox, or Safari; and
 - iv. Access to the internet through your internet service provider (ISP).

You represent and warrant to us that you have all of the items listed above.

Your ISP may charge you a fee for its services. We are not responsible for errors, failures, or malfunctions of your computer equipment or software, or for the actions of any third party, such as your ISP. You alone are responsible for ensuring your computer equipment and software are installed and maintained correctly, and that your internet service is working properly. We are not responsible for the effects of, or any losses you may incur as a result of, any computer virus or other program or device that infects your system. We are not responsible for maintaining the security of your system while you use the service or for any losses you may incur as a result of any breach of your system security. We are not responsible for losses you may incur because your internet access was not functioning properly.

- e. Disclaimer of Warranties. We cannot guarantee that the service or any software provided to you by us or any third party will be available and operational at all times, or that they will function without error or interruption. There will be times when the service is unavailable or software malfunctions. THE SERVICE IS PROVIDED TO YOU ON AN "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE" BASIS. WE MAKE NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, WITH RESPECT TO THE SERVICE OR ANY SOFTWARE PROVIDED TO YOU BY US OR ANY THIRD PARTY.
- f. Limitation of Liability. IN NO EVENT WILL WE, OR ANY OF OUR OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, EMPLOYEES, SHAREHOLDERS, PARENT COMPANIES, SUBSIDIARIES, AFFILIATES, OR AGENTS, BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ANY INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, LOST PROFITS) ARISING OUT OF: (I) YOUR ACCESS TO, USE OF, OR INABILITY TO USE, THE SERVICE; (II) THE USE OF ANY PRODUCT OR SERVICE PROVIDED BY US OR ANY THIRD PARTY UNDER THIS AGREEMENT; OR (III) ANY LOSS OF DATA SUFFERED BY YOU, IN EACH CASE EVEN IF WE OR ANY THIRD PARTY HAS BEEN NOTIFIED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. If we are ever determined to be liable for damages, our liability will not exceed the amount of fees you have paid us for use of the service.
- g. Service Fees and Charges. You authorize us to charge fees and charges for the service to any account you maintain with us. Fees and charges for the service are listed in the Fee Schedule. We reserve the right to change the Fee Schedule at any time, subject to any notice or other requirements under applicable law.
- h. Confidential Information. We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you make:
 - i. Where it is necessary for completing transfers;
 - ii. In order to verify the existence and condition of your account for a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant;
 - iii. In order to comply with government agency or court orders; and
 - iv. As explained in our Privacy Disclosure.
- i. Privacy Policy. Please see our Privacy Disclosure for our policy on the use and sharing of information obtained from you.
- j. Posting of Transactions. Unless otherwise stated in this Online Banking Agreement, online banking transactions submitted prior to 6:00 p.m. Eastern Time on a business day will be processed on the same business day. Transactions submitted after 6:00 p.m. Eastern Time on a business day, or on a Saturday, Sunday, or bank holiday, will be processed the next business day. Transactions you perform other than through the online banking website, such as in person at a branch, may have earlier deadlines.

- k. Limitations on Transfers. Federal regulations limit the number and type of withdrawals and transfers you may make from a savings or money market account each monthly statement cycle. Please review your other account documents for additional information.
- l. Your Right to Stop Preauthorized Transfers. If you have told us in advance to make regular payments out of your account, you can stop any of these payments. Here is how: call, email, or write us as indicated in Section 8(n)"Errors or Questions About Your Transfers" in time for us to receive your request three business days or more before the payment is scheduled to be made. If you call, we may also require you to put your request in writing and get it to us within 14 days after you call. If we do not receive the requested written confirmation within 14 days after you call, we may consider your stop payment request withdrawn and make all payments as originally directed by you. If you wish to stop all future regular payments to any person, you must state so in your request; otherwise, we will deem the stop payment request to apply only to the payment described in your request. Please refer to the separate schedule of fees for information on the fee for stop payment orders. If these regular payments may vary in amount, the person you are going to pay will tell you 10 days before each payment, when it will be made and how much it will be. (You may choose instead to get this notice only when the payment would differ by more than a certain amount from the previous payment, or when the amount would fall outside certain limits that you set.) If you order us to stop one of these payments three business days or more before the transfer is scheduled, and we do not do so, we will be liable for your losses or damages.
- m. Errors or Questions About Your Transfers. In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers, call, email, or write us at:

Telephone Number: 1-800-990-4828

customer.advocate@atlanticunionbank.com

Mailing Address:

Atlantic Union Bank
Attention: Online Banking
P.O. Box 940 Ruther Glen, Virginia 22546

You are responsible for notifying us as soon as possible if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared.

- i. Tell us your name and account number (if any).
- ii. Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- iii. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within 10 business days.

We will determine whether an error occurred within 10 business days (20 business days if the transfer involved a new account) after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 days (90 days if the transfer involved a new account, a point-of-sale transaction, or a foreign initiated transfer) to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will credit your account within 10 business days (20 business days if the transfer involved a new account) for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within 10 business days, we may not credit your account. Your account is considered a new account for the first 30 days after the first deposit is made, unless each of you already has an established account with us before this account is opened.

We will tell you the results within three business days after completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation.

You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

- n. Stop Payments. You may use the service to place a stop payment order on any paper check in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of Your Account.
9. Your Right to Cancel the Service

You may cancel your enrollment in the service at any time (i) by notifying us in writing at Atlantic Union Bank, Attention: Online Banking, P.O. Box 940, Ruther Glen, Virginia 22546; (ii) by sending a secure email to us through the online banking website; or (iii) by calling our Customer Contact Center at 1-800-990-4828. Your cancellation will become effective after we have had a reasonable period of time, but in any event at least three business days, to implement your cancellation request. All payments through the service that remain unprocessed will be canceled. Cancelling your service will not close any accounts you maintain with us. If you cancel the service, you will still be responsible for all payments, transfers, and other transactions existing or pending at the time of your cancellation.
10. Our Right to Cancel the Service

We may cancel the service, or your enrollment in the service, at any time for any reason (including, without limitation, for inactivity), with or without notice to you. We will have no liability of any kind to you in the event we cancel the service or your enrollment in the service. If we cancel the service or your enrollment in the service, you will still be responsible for all payments, transfers, and other transactions existing or pending at the time of our cancellation.
11. Our Right to Change this Online Banking Agreement

Subject to applicable law, we may change this Online Banking Agreement, or the terms and conditions of the service, at any time, with or without notice to you. We may modify, add new provisions to, or delete existing provisions of, this Online Banking Agreement. Generally, we will notify you in advance of any change and the date upon which the change will become effective; however, if circumstances require the change to become effective immediately, we will notify you as soon as reasonably possible after the change became effective. If you continue to use the service after receiving notification of a change, you acknowledge and agree to the change.
12. Proper Use of the Service

You agree that you will not use the service for any activity not permitted under the account documents or for any unlawful, abusive, harassing, libelous, defamatory, obscene or threatening purpose. You agree to immediately stop using the service if we have terminated this Online Banking Agreement or the service, and to stop using the service to access any other services that may have terminated.
13. Alert us of Email Changes

You must provide us with a current, accurate email address and other contact information in order to participate in the service. You agree to update us promptly in the event your email address or other contact information has changed. You may notify us of changes to your email address or other contact information by updating your contact information on the online banking website or by calling our Customer Contact Center at 1-800-880-4828. Changing your contact information for online banking does not change your contact information for any other purpose. If you wish to change the contact information the Bank has on record for you, or any contact information we may use for specific services such as the Bill Payment service, you must do so separately.

14. Secure Messaging

You may send messages to us regarding your online banking accounts through our secure messaging service, which is accessible from the online banking website. The secure messaging service may not be used for sending email messages to or from anyone other than us. We may not immediately receive or view messages sent through the secure messaging service or by regular email. As a result, we are not liable for taking action on any message sent through the secure messaging service or by regular email until we have actually received and viewed the message and have had a reasonable opportunity to act on it.

By enrolling in the service, you agree that you will not use the secure messaging service to conduct transactions in your account. Instead, you will use the appropriate online banking functions to conduct account transactions. You may not use the secure messaging service to tell us about unauthorized transactions or lost or stolen usernames or passwords. If you believe you have unauthorized transactions in your account or your username or password has been lost or stolen, please call or write us as indicated in Section 8(a) "Your Liability for Unauthorized Transactions."

You agree that we may use the secure messaging service to communicate information to you about your accounts, transactions in your accounts, and the service. We may also send important notices and disclosures to you through the secure messaging service. We will deliver all secure messaging communications to the email address on record with us. It is your responsibility to notify us of any changes to your email address. You may notify us of changes to your email address by updating your contact information on the online banking website or by calling our Customer Contact Center at 1-800-990-4828.

15. Online Statements

You must activate the online statements feature by setting your statement delivery preferences on the online banking website. Online statements are available only if you have accounts enrolled in the service. If you choose to receive account statements online, you will no longer receive paper copies of statements, checks, or check images for any account you maintain with us. You may still receive other communications from us in paper format or by mail. Online statements are made available in PDF format, which requires Adobe® Reader® software for viewing. You may view, print, or download your online statements, and we encourage you to save copies of all statements that are important to you. Generally, account statements will be available online within 24 hours after the statement end date, and will remain available online for up to seven years. We may discontinue the online statement service at any time for any reason. You may discontinue your online statement service by changing your statement delivery preferences on the online banking website or by calling our Customer Service Center at 1-800-990-4828. If you discontinue your online statement service, we may, in our sole discretion, stop sending you any or all other communications electronically.

16. Transfers Between Accounts

You may make transfers between your online banking accounts that are registered with us under the same social security number or federal tax identification number. You may make transfers seven days a week, 24 hours a day; however, we will process transfers only on business days. Transfers made after 6:00 p.m. Eastern Time on a business day, or on a Saturday, Sunday, or bank holiday, will be processed on the next business day. You authorize us to withdraw and debit your account as necessary to complete any and all transfers. You agree not to schedule any transfer unless you have, and will have at the time the transfer is processed, funds in the account sufficient to complete the transfer. We may, at our option, either cancel or complete any transfer from an account with insufficient funds. We may also attempt to complete the transfer again at a later time. If we choose to complete the transfer, you may have an overdraft and will be liable for the overdraft and overdraft fees and charges as set forth in the Terms and Conditions of Your Account and Fee Schedule. We will notify you if we cancel a transfer because of insufficient funds. We reserve the right to terminate your access to the service and cancel all existing and future transfers if you make a transfer without sufficient funds in the withdrawal account.

Same day transfers cannot be cancelled after requested. Future scheduled transfers may be cancelled prior to 6:00 p.m. Eastern Time on the date prior to the scheduled transfer date. In addition, as described in Section 8(m) "Your Right to Stop Preauthorized Transfers," you have a right to cancel regularly recurring scheduled transfers at least three business days prior to the scheduled payment date. To cancel a scheduled transfer between accounts, log on to the service through the online banking website and follow the instructions for deleting transfers on the "Scheduled Transfers" screen.

17. Loan Payment Service

If you enroll in the Loan Payment Service, you may draft a checking account from another financial institution within the United States to pay a loan you have with Atlantic Union Bank. You may make your loan payment seven days a week, 24 hours a day; however, we will process payments only on business days. Payments made after 6:00 p.m. Eastern Time on a business day, or on a Saturday, Sunday, or bank holiday, will be processed on the next business day. You agree not to schedule any payment unless you have, and will have at the time the transfer is processed, funds in the account sufficient to complete the payment. We may, at our option, either cancel or complete any withdrawal from an account with insufficient funds to make the scheduled payment. If we choose to complete the withdrawal, you may have an overdraft and will be liable for the overdraft and overdraft fees and charges imposed by the provider of your external account. We will notify you if we cancel a payment because of insufficient funds.

You authorize us to select any means to execute your payment instructions. You understand that to effect your payment instruction we utilize the Automated Clearing House (ACH). Using applicable ACH Rules, we will initiate the debit from your external account and provisionally credit your loan account, credit will be applied as indicated above. If the ACH is returned for any reason, the provisional credit applied to your loan will be reversed. You understand and agree that in the event we are unable to execute your payment request utilizing the ACH, we may utilize other established payment mechanisms in order to complete your payment instructions, such as wire transfer or check.

Same day payment requests cannot be cancelled after requested. Future scheduled payments may be cancelled prior to 6:00 p.m. Eastern Time on the date prior to the scheduled payment date. In addition, as described in Section 8(m) "Your Right to Stop Preauthorized Transfers," you have a right to cancel regularly recurring scheduled payments at least three business days prior to the scheduled payment date. To cancel a scheduled payment, log on to the service through the online banking website and follow the instructions for deleting transfers on the "Loan Payments" screen.

By using the Service, you represent and warrant to us that you have the right to authorize and permit us to access your account(s) to make withdrawals from the external account that you have provided, and you assure us that by disclosing and authorizing us to use such information you are not violating any third party rights. You warrant and represent that the information you are providing us with is true, current, correct and complete. You represent and warrant to us that you are at least eighteen (18) years old and a resident of the United States.

You understand and agree that at all times your relationship with the external account provider is independent of Atlantic Union Bank and your use of the Loan Payment Service. Atlantic Union Bank will not be responsible for any acts or omissions by the financial institution or other provider of any external account, including without limitation any modification, interruption or discontinuance of any external account by such provider. Some account types may not be eligible to withdrawal funds; be sure to check with your financial institution for restrictions regarding withdrawals among your retirement (401k, IRA, etc.), savings, trusts, loans, custodial, business, corporate and other account types. We are not responsible for any costs or losses incurred from withdrawals that are not permitted under such restrictions by the provider of your external account or those imposed by applicable law.

You understand that the financial institution at which the external account is maintained may contact us to verify the content and authority of the payment instructions and any changes to those instructions. You understand that, as your agent, we may provide to such financial institution such information as may be required to verify the instructions and satisfy valid security procedures under the rules governing such external account.

We reserve the right, in our sole discretion, to terminate or suspend your right to use the Loan Payment Service immediately and without prior notice to you. An example of a reason we may suspend or terminate your right would be if you make a payment without sufficient funds in your external account. You may not make payments in excess of limits described on the Service. We reserve the right to change the limit of the payment amount you are permitted to make.

YOU AGREE THAT WE SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY COSTS, FEES, LOSSES OR DAMAGES OF ANY KIND INCURRED AS A RESULT OF (1) OUR ACCESS TO THE EXTERNAL ACCOUNTS; (2) OUR DEBIT AND/OR CREDIT OR INABILITY TO DEBIT THE EXTERNAL ACCOUNTS IN ACCORDANCE WITH YOUR LOAN PAYMENT INSTRUCTIONS; (3) ANY INACCURACY, INCOMPLETENESS OR MISINFORMATION CONTAINED IN THE INFORMATION RETRIEVED REGARDING THE EXTERNAL ACCOUNTS; (4) ANY CHARGES IMPOSED BY ANY PROVIDER OF THE EXTERNAL ACCOUNTS AND (5) ANY FUND TRANSFER LIMITATIONS SET BY THE FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS OR OTHER PROVIDERS OF THE EXTERNAL ACCOUNTS.

18. Bill Payment through Online Banking

If you enroll in the online banking Bill Payment and Presentment ("Bill Payment") service, you may receive and pay your bills online to payees in the United States. You must have a checking account with us and be enrolled in online banking in order to use the Bill Payment service. Payments may not be made from a savings or money market account. By enrolling in the Bill Payment service, you authorize us to debit or charge your designated checking account for any and all amounts necessary to complete your scheduled payment. We may remit your payments by paper check, electronic funds transfer, or other means. You may link multiple checking accounts to the Bill Payment service: each time you schedule a payment, you will choose which checking account from which to make your payment. By linking a checking account to the Bill Payment service and scheduling a payment, you represent and warrant to us that you are authorized to make withdrawals or transfers from that account. Your payment will become part of your online banking transaction history after the amount of the payment has been deducted from your designated checking account.

You may schedule payments to occur once or on a recurring basis. In addition, in certain circumstances you may schedule payments to occur automatically upon receipt of an electronic bill. Payments may not be scheduled to occur on any day that is not a business day or more than one year in the future. Generally, any recurring payment scheduled to occur on a day other than a business day will occur on the next business day.

You should schedule payments to occur at least five business days prior to the date on which your payment is due to ensure it reaches the payee by the due date. We are not responsible for mail delays or for any late charges, fees, interest, penalties, or other losses you may incur because you have not provided sufficient time for your payment to reach your payee before the payment due date. It is your responsibility to provide complete and accurate payee information so that we may direct your payment to the proper payee. It is also your responsibility to provide the correct account from which the payment is to be made. We will not be responsible for errors, accidental payments, or incorrect payments if we delivered the payment in question according to instructions provided by you.

We will deduct scheduled payments from your designated payment account within 2 business days of the scheduled payment date. You agree that your payment may not be completed or delivered if there are insufficient funds in the payment account. You agree not to schedule any payment unless you have and will have on the scheduled payment date funds in the payment account sufficient to make the scheduled payment in full. We may, but are not obligated to, cancel any scheduled payment if there are insufficient funds in the account on the scheduled payment date. If we choose to complete the scheduled payment regardless of insufficient funds, you may have an overdraft and will be liable for the overdraft and overdraft fees and charges as set forth in the Terms and Conditions of Your Account and Fee Schedule. We will notify you if we cancel a scheduled payment because of insufficient funds. We reserve the right to terminate your access to the Bill Payment service or to the service, and to cancel all existing and future scheduled payments, if you schedule or make a payment without sufficient funds in your payment account.

The cut-off time for submitting payments through the Bill Payment service is 10:30 p.m. Eastern Time. Payments submitted prior to 10:30 p.m. Eastern Time on a business day will be processed on the same business day. Payments submitted after 10:30 p.m. Eastern Time on a business day, or on a Saturday, Sunday, or bank holiday, will be processed the next business day.

No payment made through the Bill Payment service may exceed $10,000.00. In addition, the total amount of all payments made through the Bill Payment service in a single day may not exceed $20,000.00.

You may not use the Bill Payment service to make payments to federal, state, or local tax agencies or to pay alimony, child support, or other governmental taxes, fees, penalties, or court-ordered payments. You may not use the Bill Payment service to make payments to payees located outside the United States or to any payee who does not accept checks. In addition, we reserve the right to refuse to make a payment to any payee and to cancel your enrollment in the Bill Payment service at any time for any reason.

Non-scheduled bill payments cannot be cancelled. Future scheduled payments may be cancelled prior to 10:30 p.m. Eastern Time on the date prior to the scheduled payment date. In addition, as described in Section 8(m) "Your Right to Stop Preauthorized Transfers," you have a right to cancel regularly recurring scheduled payments at least three business days prior to the scheduled payment date. To cancel a scheduled payment, log on to the service through the online banking website and follow the instructions on the Bill Payment screen.

We reserve the right from time to time to place new or different restrictions on payments submitted through the Bill Payment service and to change any other requirements of the Bill Payment service.

You may be eligible to receive bills from some payees electronically through the Bill Payment service. We do not control the electronic bills provided to you: the payee decides whether to provide electronic bills, what information they need to provide them, and when they will make your electronic bills available. It is your responsibility to contact the payee if you do not receive an electronic bill. We are not responsible in the event you or a payee does not timely provide us the information required to access your electronic bills. All questions regarding your electronic bills should be directed to the payee.

In order to access a payee's website to obtain an electronic bill, we may ask you for identifying information such as your user identification number, password, and login information. By providing this information, you authorize us to access the payee's web site to retrieve your account information on your behalf and appoint us your agent for that purpose.

If you wish to stop receiving electronic bills for a particular payee, you may do so by changing your electronic bill preferences in the Bill Payment section of the online banking website or by calling our Customer Contact Center at 1-800-990-4828.

For an additional fee, as part of the Bill Payment service, you may schedule a bill payment to process on an expedited basis. An expedited payment will be processed overnight either by electronic or paper check and in most cases will be delivered to your payee account the next day. You may have an additional fee in the event we process your expedited payment by paper check. In some cases, expedited processing will not be available for the bill payment you wish to schedule; if expedited processing is not available for a payment, the expedited processing option will not appear on the screen. We do not process paper checks on an overnight basis to payees with P.O. boxes or payees located in Alaska, Hawaii, or any address outside of the contiguous 48 states or the District of Columbia. In addition, all expedited payments are subject to all other restrictions applicable to the Bill Payment service.
